

Separation of Concerns

- Gehört das wirklich dahin?

A man with short, dark hair, wearing a dark blue or black suit jacket and a matching shirt, is seated on a blue upholstered chair. He has a thoughtful expression, with his eyes closed or looking down, and his right hand is raised to his chin. The background features a wall with intricate, light-colored carvings and a dark wood panel with a grid pattern. The lighting is soft, highlighting the man's face and the texture of his clothing.
